Case No. 1:20-cv-01008-JPC

CLASS ACTION

ORDER AND FINAL JUDGMENT

On the 18th day of August, 2022, a hearing having been held before this Court to determine: (1) whether the terms and conditions of the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement dated April 1, 2022 (ECF No. 203-1) (the “Stipulation”) are fair, reasonable, and adequate for the settlement of all claims asserted by the Settlement Class against the Defendants, including the release of the Released Claims against the Releasees, and should be approved; (2) whether judgment should be entered dismissing the Action with prejudice; (3) whether to approve the proposed Plan of Allocation as a fair and reasonable method to allocate the Net Settlement Fund among Settlement Class Members; (4) whether and in what amount to award counsel previously appointed by the Court as Lead Counsel (“Lead Counsel”), as fees and reimbursement of expenses; and (5) whether and in what amount to award Lead Plaintiff and Additional Plaintiff Representative as incentive fees; and

The Court having considered all matters submitted to it at the hearing and otherwise; and

It appearing in the record that the Notice substantially in the form approved by the Court in the Court's Order Granting Lead Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, dated April 18, 2022 ("Preliminary Approval Order") was mailed to all reasonably identifiable Settlement Class Members and posted to the website of the Claims Administrator, both in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order and the specifications of the Court; and

It appearing in the record that the Summary Notice substantially in the form approved by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order was published in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order and the specifications of the Court;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. This Order and Final Judgment incorporates by reference the definitions in the Stipulation, and all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings as set forth therein.

2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action, Lead Plaintiff, all Settlement Class Members, and Defendants.

3. The Court finds that, for settlement purposes only, the prerequisites for a class action under Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been satisfied in that:

- (a) the number of Settlement Class Members is so numerous that joinder of all members thereof is impracticable;
- (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class;
- (c) the claims of the Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class they seek to represent;

- (d) Plaintiffs and Lead Counsel fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Settlement Class;
- (e) questions of law and fact common to the members of the Settlement Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Settlement Class; and
- (f) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this Action, considering:
 - i. the interests of the Settlement Class Members in individually controlling the prosecution of the separate actions;
 - ii. the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by Settlement Class Members;
 - iii. the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of these claims in this particular forum; and
 - iv. the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of the class action.

4. The Settlement Class is being certified for settlement purposes only.

5. The Court finally certifies this action as a class action for purposes of the Settlement, pursuant to Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of all Persons or entities who purchased or otherwise acquired publicly traded American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) of Sasol Limited (“Sasol”) from March 10, 2015, to January 13, 2020, inclusive (the “Class Period”). Excluded from the Class are (i) Defendants, (ii) the Immediate Family Members of the Individual Defendants, (iii) any Person who was an officer or director of Sasol during the Settlement Class Period and his or her Immediate Family Members, (iv) any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of Sasol, (v) any firm, trust, corporation, or other entity any entity in which any excluded Person or entity has or had during the Settlement Class Period, a controlling interest, and the legal representatives, agents, affiliates, heirs, successors-in-interest, or assigns of any such excluded Person or entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Sasol employee retirement, savings, or benefit plan shall not be deemed an affiliate of any Defendant, except that any Claim Form submitted on behalf of any Sasol employee retirement, savings, or benefit plan shall be pro-rated to exclude the proportion owned by Defendants and other specifically excluded Persons or entities. Also excluded from the Settlement Class are any Persons and entities who or which exclude themselves by submitting a request for exclusion that is accepted by the Court. Also excluded from the Settlement Class are those Persons who file valid and timely requests for exclusion in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order. Pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for the purposes of this Settlement only, Lead Plaintiff is certified as the class representative on behalf of the Settlement Class (“Class Representative”) and Lead Counsel previously selected by Lead Plaintiff and appointed by the Court is appointed as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class (“Lead Counsel”).

6. In accordance with the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order, the Court finds that the forms and methods of notifying the Settlement Class of the Settlement and its terms and conditions met the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Section 21D(a)(7) of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(7), as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995; constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and constituted due and sufficient notice of these proceedings and the matters set forth herein, including the Settlement and Plan of Allocation, to all Persons and entities entitled to such notice. No Settlement Class Member is relieved from the terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the releases provided for in the Stipulation, based upon the contention or proof that such Settlement Class Member failed to receive actual or adequate notice. A full opportunity has been offered to the Settlement Class Members to object to the proposed Settlement and to participate in the hearing thereon. The Court further finds that the notice provisions of the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, were meaningfully complied with, and that the two respects in which those provisions were not fully discharged—namely, the lateness of the notice and its failure to identify or estimate class membership by state—constitute technical errors that should not bar approval of the Settlement. Thus, it is determined that all Settlement Class Members are bound by this Order and Final Judgment.

7. The Settlement is approved as fair, reasonable and adequate under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. This Court further finds that the Settlement set forth in the Stipulation is the result of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations between experienced counsel representing the interests of the Class Representative, Settlement Class Members, and Defendants. The Parties are directed to consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Stipulation.

8. The Action and all claims contained therein, as well as all of the Released Claims, are dismissed with prejudice as against Defendants and the Releasees. The Parties are to bear their own costs, except as otherwise provided in the Stipulation.

9. The releasing parties, on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns, and any other Person claiming (now or in the future) through or on behalf of them, regardless of whether any such releasing party ever seeks or obtains by any means, including without limitation by submitting a Proof of Claim Form, any disbursement from the Settlement Fund, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of this Order and Final Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against the Releasees. The releasing parties shall be deemed to have, and by operation of this Order and Final Judgment shall have, covenanted not to sue the Releasees with respect to any and all Released Claims in any forum and in any capacity. The releasing parties shall be and are permanently barred and enjoined from asserting, commencing, prosecuting, instituting, assisting, instigating, or in any way participating in the commencement or prosecution of any action or other proceeding, in any forum, asserting any Released Claim, in any capacity, against any of the Releasees. Nothing contained herein shall, however, bar the releasing parties from bringing any action or claim to enforce the terms of the Stipulation or this Order and Final Judgment.

10. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all Persons other than the Defendants shall be permanently enjoined, barred and restrained from bringing, commencing, prosecuting or asserting any claims, actions, or causes of action for contribution, indemnity or otherwise against any of the Releasees seeking as damages or otherwise the recovery of all or any part of any liability, judgment or settlement which they pay or are obligated to pay or agree to pay to the Settlement Class or any Settlement Class Member arising out of, relating to or concerning such Persons' participation in any acts, facts, statements or omissions that were or could have been alleged in the Action, whether arising under state, federal or foreign law as claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims or otherwise, in this Court or any other federal, state, or foreign court, or in any arbitration proceeding, administrative agency proceeding, tribunal, or any other proceeding or forum. Further, nothing in the Stipulation or this Order and Final Judgment shall apply to bar or otherwise affect any claim for insurance coverage, contribution, indemnification, or otherwise by the Defendants.

11. The Court finds that the proposed Plan of Allocation is a fair and reasonable method to allocate the Net Settlement Fund among Settlement Class Members, and Lead Counsel and the Claims Administrator are directed to administer the Plan of Allocation in accordance with its terms and the terms of the Stipulation.

12. The Court finds that the Parties and their counsel have complied with all requirements of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Private Securities Litigation Record Act of 1995 as to all proceedings herein.

13. Neither this Order and Final Judgment, the Stipulation (nor the Settlement contained therein), nor any of its terms and provisions, nor any of the negotiations, documents or proceedings connected with them:

- (a) is or may be deemed to be, or may be used as an admission, concession, or evidence of, the validity or invalidity of any Released Claims, the truth or falsity of any fact alleged by the Class Representative, the sufficiency or deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the Action, or of any wrongdoing, liability, negligence or fault of Defendants, the Releasees, or each or any of them;
- (b) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or misrepresentation or omission with respect to any statement or written document attributed to, approved or made by Defendants or Releasees in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal;
- (c) is or may be deemed to be or shall be used, offered or received against the Parties, Defendants or the Releasees, or each or any of them, as an admission, concession or evidence of the validity or invalidity of the Released Claims, the infirmity or strength of any claim raised in the Action, the truth or falsity of any fact alleged by the Lead Plaintiff or the Settlement Class, or the availability or lack of availability of meritorious defenses to the claims raised in the Action;

- (d) is or may be deemed to be or shall be construed as or received in evidence as an admission or concession against Defendants, or the Releasees, or each or any of them, that any of Class Representative's or Settlement Class Members' claims are with or without merit, that a litigation class should or should not be certified, that damages recoverable in the Action would have been greater or less than the Settlement Fund or that the consideration to be given pursuant to the Stipulation represents an amount equal to, less than or greater than the amount which could have or would have been recovered after trial.

14. The Releasees may file the Stipulation and/or this Order and Final Judgment in any other action that may be brought against them in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, full faith and credit, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim. The Parties may file the Stipulation and/or this Order and Final Judgment in any proceedings that may be necessary to consummate or enforce the Stipulation, the Settlement, or this Order and Final Judgment.

15. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Stipulation, all funds held by the Escrow Agent shall be deemed to be in custodia legis and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court until such time as the funds are distributed or returned pursuant to the Stipulation and/or further order of the Court.

16. Without affecting the finality of this Order and Judgment in any way, this Court retains continuing exclusive jurisdiction over the Parties and the Settlement Class Members for all matters relating to the Action, including the administration, interpretation, effectuation or enforcement of the Stipulation and this Order and Final Judgment, and including any application for fees and expenses incurred in connection with administering and distributing the Settlement proceeds to the Settlement Class Members.

17. Without further order of the Court, Defendants and Class Representative may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Stipulation.

18. There is no just reason for delay in the entry of this Order and Final Judgment and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court is expressly directed pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

19. The finality of this Order and Final Judgment shall not be affected, in any manner, by rulings that the Court may make on Lead Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses or an award to the Class Representative.

20. If the Settlement is not consummated in accordance with the terms of the Stipulation, then the Stipulation and this Order and Final Judgment (including any amendment(s) thereof, and except as expressly provided in the Stipulation or by order of the Court) shall be null and void, of no further force or effect, and without prejudice to any Party, and may not be introduced as evidence or used in any action or proceeding by any Person against the Parties or the Releasees, and each Party shall be restored to his, her or its respective litigation positions as they existed immediately prior to the date of the execution of the Stipulation.

SO ORDERED this 19th day of August, 2022.
